

Tomorrow Is A Stranger

Melody Club

another day goes by another year will follow i'm waiting for tomorrow tomorrow never comes feels like tomorrow never comes it's in the corner of my eye i feel it all around me i feel it deep inside of me it's everywhere i go

i feel it everywhere i go it's something in the way she moves me something in the way she moves me and nothing seems to matter, when i'm around her nothing seems to matter, when she's not around
