

Darling Fare Thee Well

Melody Gardot

Oh, my love
What is this bitter taste?
Where is that warm embrace I loved
I thought that I had found?

Oh, my love
What happened to your heart?
Weren't you the one who started up
This fire in my veins?

What of us remains?
What's waiting 'round the bend?
When I see your eyes, I see the nearing ending

Of our love
What once was all we had
The thing that made me glad to wake
Well, now my poor heart breaks

What of us remains?
What's waiting 'round the bend?
When I see your eyes, I see the nearing ending

Oh, my love
I loved you very well
But now I see your eyes are crying
So darling, fare thee well
