

A Slow Dawning of Peace

Melody's Echo Chamber

I walked along some grave at night
They said, "This is not your time yet
Go home, God's within you
Let the waves wash your face and feel the ground"

Well guess what? There's still something to live for
Love is all around

Could you, could you, would you try?

Well guess what? There's still something to live for
Love is all around

Je marche encore et je vois ces images
J'essuie les larmes de mon visage
J'éclaire mes jours et la nuit
Je prie, je monte et j'ouvre mon âme

Guess what? There's still something to live for
Love is all around
