

Memory's Underground

Melody's Echo Chamber

Could you stay with me tonight?
Can't find another way
Hold your memories underground
About to run wild

Into the temple of the unreasonable people
Enter it now

Would you stay with me tonight?
Get lost along the day
Old memories underground
They want to run wild

Into the temple of the unreasonable people
Enter it now
Into the temple of the unreasonable people
Enter it now

Could you stay with me tonight?
Can't find another way
Hold your memories underground
About to run wild

About to run wild
I want to run wild
