

Pêcheuse de Lune

Melody's Echo Chamber

I think I'm floating
In a certain void
And all my fears are teasing, teasing me hard

From all the things I miss the most
I know that I can rest assured
The love for you repaid in void
How long until I cry alone

I can see the light
I can find my way, oh oh

It seems so far, until September arrives
I can't wait to see

I think I'm dreaming, when I think of you
You're all I've ever searched and so much more

From all the things I miss the most
I know that I can rest assured
The love for you repaid in void
How long until you cry alone

I can see the light
I can find the force

It feels so far, until September arrives
I never thought
That could happen, real life
Can't wait to see through
