

I Will Wait

Melody Thornton

Our first date we talked for hours
I felt so drunk lost track of time
If you think that I could forget you
Baby you must be out your mind

I've never felt so sure
Of any one man's heart
So pure
You could be stupid or just blind to think you weren't on my mind
My beating heart is so heavy
I know you weren't ready

I will wait
I will wait
You won't find better than this love
And you're not ready for it all
So I will wait

For you to give up foolish pride
For you to put your pain aside
I didn't mean to break your heart
Just thought you needed space and time

Now I've been punished here before
Put my dam heart out on the floor
So please no kicking while it's there
I know that you're still angry
Please forgive me

I will wait
I will wait
You won't find better than this love
And you're not ready for it all
So I will wait

Don't want to leave this puzzle unfinished
And I believe that you're my missing piece
Don't want to spend my life on earth regretting
That I didn't fight for the love between you and me
Me

I will wait
Darling I can wait
You won't find better than this love
And you're not ready for it all
So I will wait

Oh
I can wait
Baby I can wait
Let's give our young love one more try
And no regrets before we die
I will wait

Let's give our young love one more try
And no regrets before we die
I will wait
