Maybe you should help me… maybe you should leave?
What's wrong with the Ratalon just across the street?
A poor choice of words, and a poor choice of friends…
I looked hard, but it would not start; wrong side again

(Okay…)

Something gotta happen, just a waste of time
Living low, with a can of blow… and red wine
You leave here, big guy, you leave here dead!
I don't know where I wanna go, but this ain't it

Stupid, also gave faith to God;
He's not very good, but he's all we got
Something should happen, but we're almost out of time

Maybe you should help me… maybe you should leave?
Nothing wrong with the Ratalon … it just fits
You lazy faker, you laissez-faire;
I don't know where I wanna go, but this ain't it
