Tried tell em I was chilling but today I got time
My gun legal weed legal it's all legal
Before leave you young man I try to lead you
Try and school you give you game stay neutral
Before the judge or youngings put it to you
It's big business big cribs and shit
This the way a gangster movie suppose to end and shit
This the scene before credits something they can't edit
We all getting chicken all my niggas is breaded
We smoking on that butta and you know I got my mind right
You know I got a story let me show you what it sound it like
I used whip the coke in a lil water
But then I moved flower I'm out in Florida
That little hustle now turned to brick an mortar
