Hey, listen

Lately I've been receiving opinions that I didn't ask for Gotta talk to a breeze and he needs some passports
Things are getting easier than a couple years before, hmm
And I'm so proud of the outcome
Body trynna cross me like Malcom
Pain in my eyes unless we how come
How many believed in me?
About one
My self confidence like mountains
Easy to fall off
But when the clouds come
People trynna clout some
Most of the time that is the start of a downfall
How many fucks I give?
About none
Man, you know what they say
Patience is key so I open the safe
Pray everyday, God show me the way
Before they take my soul and everything fades away

With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it
Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming
With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it
Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming

Hey, listen, hear me out
I know they see the growth when they hear me out
I'm spiritually woken, I see the crowd
Expecting me to go before the easy route
Now I'm not about to go for that easy shit
I'm who the leader is, still I ask for leadership
They used to hate me for no reason like some idiots
That's why I bought the double arc, I guess I'm seeding it
But guess who feed the kids
The Motherland in God's hand like Jesus is Y'all know who the realist is
I'm not perfect but I'm preaching this
They chase on me like the season
For no reason, hey
Man, you know what they say
Patience is key so I open the safe
But don't forget to pray, it's never too late
If you start to believe, he will meet you half way
I'm on the way

With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it
Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming
With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it

Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming

With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it
Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming
With everything you do, you just gotta believe it
Believe in anything and you will achieve it
Just know that God has your back and he sees it
Blessings and blessings are coming
