

Necessary Evil

Memphis May Fire

Necessary evil

Back full of thorns in a bed full of roses
Take the pleasure with the pain, double doses
Stuck in a rage, can't escape the emotion
Can't escape the emotion

Cause I try and I try but I lose every time, I
Try to change anything in the timeline
Life's a game only won in the mind's eye

Looking for a way out but it's all just in vain
Time won't wait and there's no sequel
Waste away to thread the needle
Weighed down cause it all ends the same
Life is pain and love is lethal
It's all necessary evil

Control is an illusion
Get a grip and then you lose it
You can die from doom and gloom'n
Or embrace the grave and learn to use it

Back full of thorns in a bed full of roses
Take the pleasure with the pain, double doses
Stuck in a rage, can't escape the emotion
Band turned to worse is the face of the omen

Band turned to worse is the face of the omen

Looking for a way out but it's all just in vain
Time won't wait and there's no sequel
Waste away to thread the needle
Weighed down cause it all ends the same
Life is pain and love is lethal
It's all necessary evil

Bow your head to the balanced scale
No deliverance, all hail

Looking for a way out but it's all just in vain
Time won't wait and there's no sequel
Waste away to thread the needle
Weighed down cause it all ends the same
Life is pain and love is lethal
It's all necessary evil
