

Don't Think That You're Smart

Memphis Slim

Don't think you're smart
Because you've got every man in town
Don't think you're smart, woman
Because you've got every man in town
Well, well, woman you ain't doin' nothin'
Well, well, would tear your reputation down

There's no man that wants a woman
That comes stagglin' down the street
No man wants a woman
That comes stagglin' down the street
Well because you ain't no good woman
Well, well, you'll get drunk with every man you meet

I can get drunk, roll in the gutter
Get up and brush myself off
I can roll in the gutter
Get up and brush myself off
Now, well but if you should happen to do so woman
Well, well, woman, your reputation is gone

Now don't think I'm scoldin'
I'm just tryin' to get you to learn
Don't think I'm scoldin'
I'm just tryin' to get you to learn
Well, well, that a woman's reputation
Well, well, it's somethin' that money can't earn
