

Mr. Entertainer

Men at Work

Please Mr. Entertainer
Won't you spare smile for me
Oh Lady Escapader
Carry me far out to sea

Hey Mr. Undertaker
You'll make no business out of me
Excuse me Miss Cocktail Shaker
I'll lock the door and toss the key away

Of course you'll be there
Of course you'll be there
In my life
If you want to
In my life
If you want it

Listen to what I'm saying
It may concern what you have lost
Make sure you know the game you're playing,
Especially how much it costs

I'll lay my cards on the table
For all the world to see
But that really is no big deal
No one will bother except of me

Of course you'll be there
Of course you'll be there
In my life
If you want to
In my life
If you want it
