

Curious Fish

Men I Trust

Glass too thick couldn't see through,
I've been waiting something new
But it felt true
My heart is true

Curious fish sought distant light;
Shiny trophies caught its sight
I fell to love
I'm fond of love

As if limestone wore my heed,
It seemed fair to trust this lead
But it felt true
My heart is true

Blushing means I know too well
Fish meets light from its lone shell
I fell to love
I'm fond of love
