Men I Trust

I recall polar days like these by the Zora river
Before heading nearby to quench my thirst
Writers and few musicians among the local drunk
Tentative relief, together blank

So I dream about C.R.E.A.M. tonight
White flag night
Wicked night
'Cause

I miss October nights in Parc
Miss the corner store small talk
Smoke indoors past four
Come on Jean-Talon
