

Heavenly Flow

Men I Trust

Rain pours down
To drown
And wash my world
Anew
Subdue
All I thought I knew

Heavenly flow
Why, you don't know
The earthly burn below?
Sweetest honey
Why, don't you see
How much you mean to me?
You are my peace

The chill draws so near
And I fear
The time when trees
Shed dry leaves
Old psalms and dreams
To own
My hooded eyes
Alone
Put that voice at ease

Heavenly flow
Why, you don't know
The earthly burn below?
Sweetest honey
Why, don't you see
How much you mean to me?
You are my peace

Hold me close, don't let me fade
Tell me truths the earth won't trade
Do you feel you're slipping too?
I'm lost in you
And I miss my home

Heavenly flow
Why, you don't know
The earthly burn below
Sweetest honey
Why, don't you see
How much you mean to me
You are my peace
