

Run Away

Men Without Hats

The world is up, the world is down
I don't care as long as I'm around you
As long as I'm around you
The world is old, the world is new
I don't care now that I've found you
And now that I have you

And everybody wants to run away
Yeah, everybody needs to run away

Woah, remember when you run away
You can't come back another day
Say you'll never run away again
'Cause every time you run away
If you return, you'll never stay
You'll only wanna run away again

And everybody wants to run away

The world is flat, the world is round
But I don't care as long as I'm beside you
'Cause I belong beside you
The world is in, the world is out
And I don't care as long as I'm about you
As long as I'm about you

And everybody wants to run away
Yeah, everybody needs to run away

Woah, remember when you run away
You can't come back another day
Say you'll never run away again
'Cause every time you run away
If you return, you'll never stay
You'll only wanna run away again
You'll only try to run away again

And everybody wants to run away
Yeah, everybody needs to run away

Woah, remember when you run away
You can't come back another day
Say you'll never run away again
'Cause every time you run away
If you return, you'll never stay
You'll only wanna run away again

Remember when you run away
You can't come back another day
Say you'll never run away again
'Cause every time you run away
If you return, you'll never stay
You'll only try to run away again
You'll only try to run away again
You'll only wanna run away again
You'll only try to run away again
You'll only wanna run away again
