

When Does the Love Begin?

Men Without Hats

When does the love begin?
When does the hurting stop?
When does the love begin?
When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?

You left me at the railway station
Waiting for the midnight train
You left without an explanation
Now I'm standing in the pouring rain

Thinking of the implications
The conductor yells all aboard (all aboard)
Your loving was my destination
But the journey was what I adored
Yeah, the journey was what I adored

When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?
When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?

You said you wanted revolution
But we still got a long way to go
Love's no easy solution
I know, I heard it on the radio

You left me at the railway station
Standing in the pouring rain
You left without an explanation
Now I'm waiting for the midnight train
Yeah, I'm waiting for the midnight train

When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?
When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?
(When does the love begin?)

When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?
(When does the love begin?)
When does the hurting stop?
When does the heartache end?
When does the love begin?
(When does the love begin?)
