

Calling Colin

Mental As Anything

Calling, calling Colin
I've been calling for you
You've been trying to avoid me
If we could get together
You could tell me how I've been
I've been so foolish
Excuses' alibis
All are lies' all are lies

Filthy' filthy, filthy
My heart's inside my head
Don't suffer from ataraxy
Brain has gone to bed
Come away, come away
It won't take long
I just want to hear you say
"I was wrong' I was wrong"

Temptation, blues
There must be some way
Put me back where I was
Stop my fall I'm calling
Calling Colin
Calling Colin

Calling, calling Colin
Anybody out there?
Sammy' Harry, Robin
Anybody home?
Good night for self destruction
I've got the makings here
Good night to not be on your own
All alone, all alone

That's why I'm
Calling, calling Colin
(I've been calling for you)
Calling, calling Colin
(I've been calling for you)
Calling, calling Colin
(I've been calling for you)
Calling, calling Colin
(I've been calling for you)

Da da-da-da da-da da-da
