

Insurance Man

Mental As Anything

Please Insurance Man
I need a better plan
I want a brand new policy
Won't you please please cover me
I'm young and I'm healthy now
Not very wealthy now
But love is thrilling me
That girl could be killing me

Please Insurance Man
Help me if you can
If another man caught her eye
I know I'd surely die
They call it jealousy
But it's love to me
If she should go away
Dead in my grave I'd lay

Won't you please give me a real good cover
The money will go to my father and mother
My life is gonna end before it starts
'Cause I think I'm gonna die of a broken heart

Please Insurance Man
I need a better plan
I want a brand new policy
Won't you please please cover me
I'm young and I'm healthy now
Not very wealthy now
But love is thrilling me
That girl could be killing me
