

Monster on the Playground

Mental As Anything

Everybody wants to walk with you, like me
Everybody wants to talk with you, like me

You're a new kind of intoxication
You give me more, take me higher education
Hey, what more can I say?

You're a monster on the playground of life
Oh-oh-oh, what a perfect disguise
You cheeky thing, you got me laughin' so hard
All the tears roll out of my eyes

From my house, down the road, I feel your charm
I'd be king of the world hanging off your arm

You're a new kind of intoxication
You give me more, take me higher education
Hey, what more can I say?

You're a monster on the playground of life
Oh-oh-oh, what a perfect disguise
You cheeky thing, you got me laughin' so hard
All the tears roll out of my eyes
You're so wonderful, wicked and wise

Intoxication
Everybody wants to walk with you like me
Everybody wants to talk with you like me

Everybody wants to walk with you, like me
(From my house, down the road, I feel your charm)
Everybody wants to talk with you, like me
(I'd be king of the world hanging off your arm)
