

Oasis

Mental As Anything

Oasis, the feel of a woman
Oasis, never to forget her
I can't operate a computer anymore
My hands never shook like this before
I walk in circles and I howl at the moon
I'm helpless

Oasis, flowing like a river
Oasis, is there nothing I can give her?
All the words in the world are worthless
They leave my mouth and drop like stones
To fall at your feet and lie, as I lie alone
Oasis

Quantum physics might lend a hand
Buddha and Jesus were great men
Mathematics might keep us warm
But you give me shelter from the storm

Whoa-oh-oh, oasis, the feel of a woman
Oasis, never to forget her
Let me tell you that I need her
More than any God I know
Oasis
