

Put Me Back

Mental As Anything

I tried to be satisfied
Being king for a day
I lost my balance and my concentration
And fell the rest of the way
Ooh I should have known
That you would shatter my shell
Like Humpty Dumpty
That's just the way I fell

I lost my balance and my concentration
Put me back, put me back
No sympathy, no consolation
Put me back, put me back

One of these days
I'm gonna learn to take my time
Now I don't have the patience
To try to make you mine

I lost my balance and my concentration
Put me back, put me back
No sympathy, no consolation
Put me back, put me back

Ooh I lost my balance and my concentration
Put me back, put me back
No sympathy, no consolation
Put me back, put me back
Ooh ooh
Put me back, put me back

I lost my balance and my concentration
I lost my balance and my concentration
Ooh put me back

Put me back, back where I belong
Put me back, let me sing more songs
Put me back, back where I belong
Put me back, let me sing more songs
