

The ultimate horror lives amongst us all
A parallel dimension opens up in the shadow of humanity

Take my hand as I walk into oblivion
Until the light takes me I will prevail over this world
As the light comes out of the black
I watch you as you try to escape from the shadows
The altar is prepared
The cross in my hand burns into my skin
The holy wounds begin to bleed
Abadon, king of the underworld
Is waiting at the abyss for us all

Drag me down to hell
The place where I belong
Drag me down to hell
Now its time to pray for the eternity

No rationality could describe what is waiting for us
The worlds grave is opening, ready to leave us all in eternal darkness
Eternal darkness

Abadon, king of the underworld
Your day has come
Eternal bloodlust
The soil cracks apart and unleashes hell
Eternal dust
Born in the flame
The lamb got sacrificed
No one will survive

Take me into hell the place where I belong
Drag me down to hell
Now it's time to pray for the eternity
Burn in eternity
Burn for me

Blood dragged eye balls stare into the void
Darkness is coming back to life
From the blood we spilled

Abadon
Take me home
Where I belong
Hail Abadon

Now I burn in the flames of purgatory
Abadon
