

Eternal Eclipse

Mental Cruelty

The human impact on this world is undeniable
Injustice leads the way to the point of no return
Heaven has fallen
My salvation will be the final darkness

I broke out of hell letting earth witness
My wrath
Misery from day to day

I free this world from all life
I bring the fire and bear the light
I free this world from all lies
I welcome the dark age of mankind

Follow me, the reaper of darkness
You saw it coming
The eternal plague finally arrived
Our own species opened this hell
Conquering this world

I am the oppressor of light
There will be darkness within me
Drag me down

Come to me, and to ash you will return
May thy desire become my end
Rest in silence
This is the final darkness

Life begins when the casket closes
Welcome to my empire, the underworld
A place where agony and hatred dwells
Now the time has come to conquer all our homes

Follow me, the reaper of darkness
You saw it coming
The eternal plague finally arrived
Our own species opened this hell
Destroying all our worlds

I free this world from all life
I bring the fire and bear the light
I free this world from all lies
I welcome the dark age of mankind

There is a darkness within me
Drag them down to all despair
Rise eternal eclipse
