

Dreadful Fate

Merciless

The war is here and what will remain what will happen when insanity prevail caught in a grasp of eternal pain fear and tears you can't restrain

We all fight with a growing hate kill to live is a dreadful fate

They don't care how you plead your head under the sword of steel They'll find you wherever they dwell take your soul and send it to hell

Fuck, fuck, can't you see who will survive, you or me

Dreadful fate...
