

Return of the Vampire...1993

Mercyful Fate

A suicide, the birth of a Vampire
Deep in his lair, gasping for air Spreaded wings
Fly out at sunset
So high above, back before dawn
Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours
he will share
Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours
he will share
There's only one way you can stop him
You gotta trace the Vampire to his lair, oh yeah
And then you gotta drive a stake Right through the heart of the living dead, the dead Oh I can feel something is wrong
Vampire, My shadow is gone Vampire, I know what you've done
Vampire, My shadow is gone Vampire, I know what you've
done

Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours
he will share
Return of the Vampire
Leaving his lair
He's out for blood and it's yours
he will share
A suicide, the birth of a Vampire
