

Grace Amazing

MercyMe

It's the blue of the sky
It's the beacon in the night
It's the calm within the thunder and the rain

It's the end of all my shame
It's the love that knows my name
It's a peace beyond all understanding

Grace
Grace
It always set me free
Without ever letting go of me
Grace
Grace
Every time the Father runs
To the one who can't run fast enough
That's grace

It's the end and it's the start
Oh it meets us where we are
It's the gravity that pulls us to Your heart

It's the source of all our worth
It's the author of new birth
It's the genesis of all the universe

Grace
Grace
It always set me free
Without ever letting go of me
Grace
Grace
Every time the Father runs
To the one who can't run fast enough
That's grace

'Til He wipes our tears away
And our eyes behold His face
Hallelujah for His grace amazing grace
It rolled the stone away
So much stronger than the grave
Hallelujah for His grace amazing

Grace
Grace
It always set me free
Without ever letting go of me

Grace
Grace
It always set me free
Without ever letting go of me
Grace
Grace
Every time the Father runs
That's grace
