

Oh, look around, look around you now
I feel a world away from where I was before
Oh and I'm not the same
Oh, no I'm not the same now

Fell in the traps that they set for us
Kept us tired, chasing a dime, waiting on lunch
Oh, but we're not the same
Oh, no we're not the same
Oh, 'cause a lot has changed
Oh and it's not a game now

Present

Now I could never forget it
Bright light shining on quiet city
Like a lighthouse in a blackout
Why
I don't really know, I don't really know
I don't know, no why
I still believe in gold, still believe in gold
I still wanna try

Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold
I believe in gold

Oh, look around, look around you now
Hearts too young for dying caught an early train
Oh 'cause it's not the same
Oh, no it's not the same
Oh, they don't got no shame
Oh, now we're saying names

Present

Now I could never forget
Bright light shining on quiet city
Like a lighthouse in a blackout
Why
I don't really know, I don't really know
I don't know, no why
I still believe in gold, still believe in gold
I still wanna try
I don't really know, world as we know it went up in smoke
I still believe in gold, still believe in gold
I still believe in gold

Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold (I'll be crazy)
Believe in gold in gold in gold in gold in gold
I believe in gold
I believe in gold
I believe in gold
