

Magic Words

Mereba

Long nights
No one to blame but myself
For feeling this way
When I try to recall feeling whole
I feel nothing at all

Cause I have a lock
And someone the key
Theres such a lot
Inside of me
And, ohh, I still haven't heard
Those magic words
Oh.. still haven't heard
Those magic words

I've tried all combinations and keys
I knew never would fit
So here I am with a sweet melody
That needs to be set free

I have a lock
And someone the key
Theres such a lot
Inside of me
But ohh, I still haven't heard
Those magic words
Oh.. still haven't heard
Those magic words

I have a lock
And someone the key
Theres such a lot
Inside of me
But ohh, I still haven't heard
Those magic words
Oh.. still haven't heard
Those magic words
