

Live Out Loud

Meredith Andrews

I cancel every lie
That has echoed in my life
Every word that came against
What Heaven says

I silence every doubt
That was meant to take me out
There is nothing that can steal
Your promises

I'm gonna live, gonna live out loud
No shame gonna hold me down
Free and chosen, healed and found
Ain't no fear that can stop me now
I'm gonna fight, gonna stand my ground
No chain gonna keep me bound
Loved more ways than I can count
Ain't no fear that can stop me now

My identity redeemed
My tomorrow is secure
I refuse to see through
Anything but faith

If there's power in a sound
Then my heart is gonna roar
With a fire and a force that
Can't be tamed

I'm gonna live, gonna live out loud
No shame gonna hold me down
Free and chosen, healed and found
Ain't no fear that can stop me now
I'm gonna fight, gonna stand my ground
No chain gonna keep me bound
Loved more ways than I can count
Ain't no fear that can stop me now

Gonna live, gonna live out loud
Ain't no fear that can stop me now
Gonna live, gonna live out loud

This is where dry bones get back up again
I prophesy
This is where dead dreams come to life again
I prophesy
This is where faith can change reality
I testify
This is where You redeem my legacy

This is where dry bones get back up again
I prophesy
This is where dead dreams come to life again
I prophesy
This is where faith can change reality
I testify
That this is where You redeem my legacy

I'm gonna live, gonna live out loud
No shame gonna hold me down
Free and chosen, healed and found
Ain't no fear that can stop me now
I'm gonna fight, gonna stand my ground
No chain gonna keep me bound
Loved more ways than I can count
Ain't no fear that can stop me now

Gonna live, gonna live out loud
Gonna live, gonna live out loud
Ain't no fear that can stop me now
