

Needing You Now

Meredith Andrews

In the shadow of my hurt
It's been hard to see Your face
When the wreckage and the failure
Feel like more than I can take

O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now

Disappointment stole my song
But I choose to sing again
Of the kindness You have shown
When I could barely lift my hands

O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now

And You are my hope, You are my future
If I can have You, nothing but You
I have it all
Now I let go and now I surrender
If I can have You, nothing but You
I have it all

You restore every broken thing
You return ever melody
You're the calm in my raging sea
My healing, healing
You restore every broken thing
You return ever melody
You're the calm in my raging sea
My healing, healing!

O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now!

You are my hope and You are my future
If I can have You, nothing but You
I have it all
Now I let go and now I surrender
If I can have You, nothing but You
I have it all!

O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
O how I need You, yes, I still do
O how I'm needing You now
