Family Bible

Merle Haggard

There's a family Bible on the table
It's pages are torn and hard to read
But the family Bible on the table
Will ever be my key to memories

At the end of day when work was over And when the evening chores was done Dad would read to us from the family Bible And we'd count our many blessing one by one

I can see us sitting 'round the table When from the family Bible dad would read I can hear my mother softly singing Rock of ages, rock of ages cleft for me

Now this old world of ours is filled with trouble This old world would oh so better be If we had more Bibles on the table And mother singing rock of ages cleft for me

I can us see sitting around the table When from the family Bible dad would read I can hear my mother softly singing Rock of ages, rock of ages cleft for me Rock of ages, rock of ages cleft for me
