

Everyone's watching you
Do you keep you're eyes down on the ground
Everything's falling apart,
Do the feelings just keep going round
Talking is painful here,
Will they always want you to appear
Because everything's falling apart
So feel me
And feel free
You can't stay Fallen Forever
You can't live with your back to the wall
Why pray when there's nobody out there?
And there's so much time to fall
Everyone knows what you are,
but the voices don't betray their fear.
That you took it too far
They whisper loud enough to hear
Because everything's falling apart
So will me
And feel free
You can't stay Fallen Forever
You can't live with your back to the wall
Why pray when there's nobody out there?
And there's so much time to fall
I wish you could sing for me
But your lips are as tight as a drum
Stem the flow of tears on me
But they dry before they've begun
So just feel me
And feel free
You can't stay Fallen Forever
You can't live with your back to the wall
Why pray when there's nobody out there?
And there's so much time to fall
