

Is Nothing Sacred?

Mesh

Did you know what you said
Did you feel it with your heart
Do you think while your running
But you don't let it cloud you.
Do you know how it feels
To be not as smart
Try thinking on your feet
While it's crowding in around you.

But nothing is easy
I have too tell myself
Nobody's going to rip me off this time
Nobody is gift wrapped from prying eyes
Its not me that's going to lose it all this time

Do you feel it on your skin
As it tightens up
Don't see the point in running
But you can't sit still
Do you feel it in your blood
Did you press too hard
Can't see the point in living
But you made it this far.

But nothing is easy
I have too tell myself
Nobody's going to rip me off this time
Nobody is gift wrapped from prying eyes
Its not me that's going to lose it all this time

Is nothing sacred?
Its not the thought of all the time I wasted
God, does nothing touch you?
Just give me something of the love I've tasted.

Don't listen to the words
Because they're not your style
Don't see the point in calling
Cause it's been a long while.
Do you kiss her when you're through
Do you care that much
Can't see the point in talking
'Cause it's never helped that much

No, nothing is easy
I've got to realise
There's nothing that I won't do to hurt you
No, nothing is perfect in your eyes
It's not me that has to prove a thing this time.

Is nothing sacred?
It's not the thought of all the time I wasted
God, does nothing touch you?
Just give me something of the love I've tasted.

But nothing is easy
I have too tell myself

Nobody's going to hold my hand this time
Nobody is gift wrapped from prying eyes
Its not me that's going to lose a thing this time

Is nothing sacred?
Its not the thought of all the time I wasted
God, does nothing touch you?
Just give me something of the love I've tasted.

I'd give you it all if I could.
You always knew that I would.
