

This Without You

Mesh

I'm falling again,
But I don't have the courage
And you never know
I'm wasted again
Keep it locked in my own head
Here it goes again

I don't want to go through this
Without you

I'm losing my grip
Need you there to remind me
The friends I used to keep
I'm nothing again
Need you there to define me
Before I go to sleep

I don't want to go through this
Without you
I don't want to go through this
Without you
I don't want to go through this
Without you
I don't want to go through this
Without you

Without You
