

Breaking Down

Mest

When we first met, it seemed so right
Me and you
We had it all, we had it made
What we had was true

But the years have passed, and we didn't last
The test of time
See you now and then, thought you were my friend
That was wrong this time

Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking

You've lost your sense of stability
Now that you're free
No memory of yesterday's
What you say to me

So you're so jaded but intoxicated
Is all you feel
And now I've learned that what we had
Was never real

Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking down
She's breaking down

The things you've done show you don't care
So I won't be there

Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
(Breaking down)
Breaking, breaking, she's breaking down
(Breaking down)
She's broken down
She's broken down
