

Risk It All

Mest

Where did this come from?
Is there a reason?
I thought that I'd never want more
But now I'm thinkin'
Somethin' is changin'
On the inside

So now (So now)
What do I do?
And who do I turn to?
'Cause I just wanna hide
I'll keep it on the inside
I'm hidin' from your eyes
I'm hiding on the outside
From you

I'll risk it all
All black tonight
And if I win it all
We'll see the lights
If I stumble and fall
And lose this fight
You're not everything I thought you would be

I've seen this movie
I know the ending
No one ends up happy
So many reasons
I should be leavin'
So why am I still standing here

And if
You find a reason
And you still believe him
Then you deserve this

I'll risk it all
All black tonight
And if I win it all
We'll see the lights
If I stumble and fall
And lose this fight
You're not everything I thought you would be

Every time
Every time
I'm down I just keep putting in Every thing
Every thing
I shoulda walked away before
I came to this place
Where I thought I could get back
What I once had
And felt
She ran me empty
I'm empty

I'll risk it all
All black tonight
And if I win it all
We'll see the lights
If I stumble and fall
And lose this fight
You're not everything I thought you would be

I'll risk it all
All black tonight
And if I win it all
We'll see the lights
If I stumble and fall
And lose this fight
Well, I guess it just wasn't meant to be
