

The Silence Left Behind

Mest

Before I lose my mind
I have to leave this all behind
Can't get through to you
Can't get through to you
You filled this empty space
Then disappeared without a trace
Like a falling star
I'll watch your bittersweet decline

Cuz I'm onto you

Alone again
Empty bottles covering the floor
Apologies don't mean much anymore
It's nothing new I've heard it all before
The silence left behind a closing door

The look inside your blood stained eyes
Remind me of the million times
That I gave to you
Now I'll take from you
And watch your world implode
Let you lose all of control
While you crash and burn
I know you'll never learn

Cuz I'm on to you

Alone again
Empty bottles covering the floor
Apologies don't mean much anymore
It's nothing new I've heard it all before
The silence left behind a closing door

I was just wasting my time
Waiting for you
The silence left behind a closed door
Nothing left to lose
I was just wasting my time
Waiting for you
The silence left behind a closed door
Nothing left to do

Can't take no more

Cuz I'm alone again
Empty bottles covering the floor
Apologies don't mean much anymore
It's nothing new I've heard it all before
The silence left behind a closing door
