

M4-a1

Metal Inquisitor

Weapons are waiting for their inset
Excited to scream: "make my day"
Pulling the trigger, social reset
Blowing those cowards away

Lust, bullets fly, a thrill
Trust, in liberty, to kill

All right, start the dead rime
All right, news at prime time

Conquer the world, put on the mask
"Their punishment comes" as they say
"Justice is weak, so we do the task
God be with us" as they pray

Lust, bullets fly, a thrill
Trust, in liberty, to kill

All right, start the dead rime
All right, news at prime time

Shooting march starts, firing the wimps
Assassin, prepare the attack
Snipers first take, cutting some limps
Finally shot in the neck

Lust, bullets fly, a thrill
Trust, in liberty, to kill

All right, start the dead rime
All right, news at prime time
