

Heavy Metal Is Forever

Metal Law

Still remember in the '80s
Guitars screaming on the stage
Rising glory of the giants and I stand in front
That's my passion forever

Hell can wait so much longer
Breaking all their foolish rules now
Every minute, metal rising to eternity

Stronger than the wind
Leather on the skin
You feel the power in you
Bang your head around
This is the sign for you

You are the metal maniacs
Yes, this I can see
You have your boots on
Polished blue as steel
The metal is the power
Law of the leather and spikes
Are you ready for the Metal Law?

Metalheads, strong as steel
Side by side, we stand together
Metalheads, strong as steel
Heavy Metal is forever

Metal religion
Tribute to the gods
You are metal on and on
Bang your head around
At the sign of the goat
This is the sign for all

You are the metal maniacs
Yes, this I can see
You have your boots on
Polished blue as steel
The metal is the power
Law of the leather and spikes
Are you ready for the Metal Law?

Metalheads, strong as steel
Side by side, we stand together
Heavy Metal is forever
