

Thundergod

Metal Law

Here I stand with enemies ahead
I keep counting
The number of the dead
I'm the god
With the hammer in his hand

Unafraid
I'm bringing your demise
Mark my words
The power is divine
Know my name
You'll read it in my eyes

Now it's time, say your prayers
Still you're fighting
But you will hear
Growling sounds that are
Shattering the ground
All your souls I will take
For what you've done to my realm

Far too long
You've made me your slave
Lust for power puts
Everyone in chains
When I let go
The thunder burns my veins

So I raise my fist to the skies
Lift the hammer
To pound from up high
Earth will tremble
Below your battle cries

Now it's time, say your prayers
Still you're fighting
But you will hear
Growling sounds that are
Shattering the ground
All your souls I will take
For what you've done to my realm

Raising storms from the sky
Lightning is guiding my way
Thundergod reigns the land
With your own blood
You will pay

Feel the force of my hand
Lightning is guiding my path
Thundergod reigns the land
There's no escape from my wrath
