Apocalypse

Metalite

Born. You were born in brought to live
Without distance glowing fantasy
To touch to the other side

But the world around you differs
From the dreams inside your mind
You breathe beyond the reality
Imagination you can't rewind

The skies coming alive
And the facing rolling thunder
Sorry like a beast in hunger
Bright, bright from the lights
The world going under
A part them to stay alive

You live, you die
The apocalypses now
Feeling now cause you were gonna make it
You were see and all go down
As you running hard for shelter
It's going supernova seen the sky

In the end there is no compromise
No confession to be relieved
You live in constant agony
Without hope for be you free

The skies come burning down
And the ways to getting higher
Passed down set the world on fire
Bright, bright for the lights
You'd see the end is coming
To coming to stay alive

You live, you die
The apocalypses now
Feeling now cause you were gonna make it
You were see and all go down
As you running hard for shelter
It's going supernova seen the sky

(You live, you die)
(The apocalypses now)

You live, you die
The apocalypses now
Feeling now cause you were gonna make it
You were see and all go down
As you running hard for shelter
It's going supernova seen the sky

You live (You live), you die (you die)
The apocalypses now (apocalypses now)
Feeling now cause you were gonna make it
(You were gonna make it)
You were see and go down

As you running hard for shelter
It's going supernova seen the sky
