Let's go

Trying to survive I am breathless, beaten down
People passing by, I feel sorry for them now
Fighting each other, I'm trying to reach out here
To the ones who wanna know where my secret lies

Nothing more to say, the perspectives lost and gone
Nothing more to do, feeling helpless to carry on Liking and sharing, nothing about caring
About the ones who are down and left alone to die

A dream about another world
We'll align and look up to the sky

We'll be legendary
We're the masters of the world
The commanders of the sky
We'll be legendary
And we know that we'll stay alive
Forever in your mind

Planning to escape, get away, to free my mind
A generation left with doubts, it's here and now
Gone are the ages, like turning the pages
We're the ones who can find a way to save your life

Forever in a distant world
We'll align and gaze up to the sky

We'll be legendary (We'll be legendary)
We're the masters of the world
The commanders of the sky (Commanders of the sky)
We'll be legendary (Legendary)
And we know that we'll stay alive
Forever in your mind

Legendary
Legendary
Legendary
Legendary
All right, here we go

A dream about another world
We'll align and look up to the sky

We'll be legendary
We're the masters of the world
The commanders of the sky (Commanders of the sky)
We'll be legendary
And we know that we'll stay alive

We'll be legendary
We're the masters of the world
The commanders of the sky
We'll be legendary
And we know (we know) that we'll stay alive (We'll stay alive)

Forever in your mind
