

Mind Of A Monster

Metalite

A mind of a monster!

A liar, a hater, a false news generator
A loner on the dark side, a mind manipulator
Searching through the pages
To misinform the masses of the world

Depressiv, aggressive, a psychic undercover
A warrior who never fight the right for one another
Engaging every minute and dreaming every day
To rule the world

Without a decent brain, your quite insane
And you live your life against the grain

In the shades of a candle light
You're unaware of the demon inside
Within you're secret place, you assume you are safe
But you can't hide under your blanket of shame

Through you screen, you're hiding your name
You can't see that we all are the same
A disorted soul, no respect, you're unknown
We gonna shut down, the mind of a monster

The mind of a monster

Mystic mesmerizing
Disfunctional, irrational, displeased of moralizing

In your mind, you're hiding
The tragic of your life and the war that you are fighting

The face will lie, over thaousand times
And you will never change, you're still the same

In the shades of a candle light
You're unaware of the demon inside
Within you're secret place, you assume you are safe
But you can't hide under your blanket of shame

Through you screen, you're hiding your name
You can't see that we all are the same
A disorted soul, no respect, you're unknown
We gonna shut down, the mind of a monster!

The mind of a monster!

Monster!

In the shades of a candle light...

In the shades of a candle light
You're unaware of the demon inside
Within you're secret place, you assume you are safe
But you can't hide under your blanket of shame

Through you screen, you're hiding your name
You can't see that we all are the same
A disorted soul, no respect, you're unknown
We gonna shut down, the mind of a monster!
