

It seems that there's no explanation
About the balance of mutation
Around the world and the places we been
There are blindness that grows under our skin

No one knows and no one cares
The changes deep within will become our fears

We are as one we're synchronized
We are the same as everyone else
Synchronized
We try to be unique but we're paralyzed
We are as one we're synchronized
We are the same as everyone else
Synchronized
We're hypnotized

The fear of the unknown will take us
To the point where only hate will feed us
We'll live as robots in demise
With an empty promise in our eyes

Right here and now, take a look around
Try to be yourself and let no one down

We are as one we're synchronized
We are the same as everyone else
Synchronized
We try to be unique but we're paralyzed
We are as one we're synchronized
We are the same as everyone else
Synchronized
We're synchronized

We are as one we're synchronized
We are the same as everyone else
Synchronized (Synchronized)
We try to be unique but we're paralyzed
Oh
We try to be unique but we're paralyzed
Synchronized
We are one we're synchronized
