

Take My Hand

Metalite

Take my hand
For eternity my friend
Just you and I, you and I

The days getting darker
A dead end road to conquer
A life out of order
Can't hold it anymore
Like the eyes of a monster
Longing for the nighttime
The mind of a fighter
Ready for the fall

There is a place that I want you to know
Together forever just go

Take my hand
I'll take to the promised wonderland
Where the rivers meets the clear blue sea
In a perfect harmony just you and me
Take my hand
I'll take you to the promised wonderland
Together we will fly so high
For eternity my friend just you and I

A heart full of fire, a heat within your soul
A burning desire that wants to lose control

The wind from the sky, forever will blow
Don't be afraid just let go!

Take my hand
I'll take to the promised wonderland
Where the rivers meets the clear blue sea
In a perfect harmony just you and me
Take my hand
I'll take you to the promised wonderland
Together we will fly so high
For eternity we'll live just you and I

Take my hand
I'll take to the promised wonderland
Where the rivers meets the clear blue sea
In a perfect harmony just you and me

Take my hand
I'll take you to the promised wonderland
Together we will fly so high
For eternity my friend just you and I
You and I... I'll take you to the promised wonderland

Take my hand
I'll take you to the promised wonderland
Just you and I, you and I
