Time goes by
Out of sight
Will somebody hear my cry
All I hear is my breathing
And I feel that my heartrs still beating
But I wouldn't say that I'm alive
Something is telling me that I can fight it
Pray for the light
Light of day
Bound in desperation
Will I die by this situation
Say a prayer - my hope is still alive
Something is telling me that I can fight it
Pray for the light
Light of day
Light of day, light of day
Something is telling me that I can fight it
Pray for the light
Light of day
Light of day
Where is the light
Light of day
I'm alone
Light of day
The day... when I'll die
```
