

Once Loyal

Metalium

When I remember -- we stood together
As long as you've been taking advantage of my soul
I should have known that, it won't last forever
It seems the truth didn't play a role

Can not believe that loyalty is a word you've never heard of
You'll burn in hell
Your time has come

A loss of sympathy
Those who nailed the cross were once loyal
You will remember me
And I will pay you back
Those once loyal

It seems your senses are out of order
You can't be stopped cause you are caught inside your mess
Stop your excuses
You've crossed the border
No sanctuary for a hellbound mindless

Can not believe that loyalty is a word you've never heard of
You'll burn in hell
Your time has come

A loss of sympathy
Those who nailed the cross were once loyal
You will remember me
And I will pay you back
Those once loyal, oh

Those who nailed the cross were once loyal
You will remember me
And I will pay you back
And I will pay you back
Oh yeah!
