Don't go looking for snakes you might find them Don't send your eyes to the sun you might blind them Haven't I seen you here before?

Oh, watch the puppets dancing Yeah, see the clowns fall down Hey, tie your tap shoes tightly Yeah, wear them into town

See you crawling See you crawling in

Don't go looking for snakes you might find them
Don't send your eyes to the sun you might blind them
Haven't I seen you here before?
There ain't no heroes here
No, no more

Oh, play the game so nicely
Oh, check, it's your move now
Yeah, we're standing in this jungle
Yeah, with serpents I have found

See you crawling See you crawling in

Don't go looking for snakes you might find them Don't send your eyes to the sun you might blind them Haven't I seen you here before?
Have your heroes disappeared?

See you crawling See you crawling in

So don't go looking for snakes you might find them Don't send your eyes to the sun you might blind them Haven't I seen you here before?

No, there ain't no heroes here

Haven't I seen you here before?
No, there ain't no heroes here

Don't go looking for snakes you might find them Yeah, Haven't I seen you here before? Have your heroes disappeared?

Don't send your eyes to the sun you might blind them
