

Charm Offensive

Methyl Ethel

I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore you more
Nobody can see

I've got you all over by body

I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore you more

I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore you more
I don't need to eat

I've got your fruit inside my body

I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore you more
Nobody can see

I've got you all over by body

I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore, I adore you more

A weekend in love, how does it feel?

A weekend in love, how does it feel?

A weekend in love

It burns like a rope tied to a note

And red with a seal, how does it feel?

A weekend in love

I'm weak in your love, I don't want to heal

The wounds of your touch, how does it feel?

A weekend in love

A weekend in love, how does it feel?

A weekend in love, how does it feel?

A weekend in love

It burns like a rope tied to a note

And red with a seal, how does it feel?

A weekend in love

I'm weak in your love, I don't want to heal

The wounds of your touch, how does it feel?

A weekend in love
